8.4 Fixed-Term Employment

8.4.1 The use of Fixed-term Employment will be limited to positions with work activity that falls within the description of one or more of the following:

- a) Specified Task or Project; which is a definable work activity which has a starting time and which is expected to be completed within an anticipated time frame. Without limiting the generality of that circumstance, it will also include a period of employment provided from identifiable funding external to the University, not being funding that is part of an operating grant from government or funding comprised of payments of fees made by or on behalf of students.
- b) Research; which is a work activity by a Staff Member appointed on research-only functions for a contract period not exceeding 5 years.
- c) Replacement Staff Member; which is a work activity undertaken by a Staff Member engaged for the purpose of replacing, either directly or indirectly, another Staff Member on leave, or temporarily seconded, away from their usual area of employment.
- d) Fill a Vacancy on a Temporary Basis; which is a work activity undertaken by a Staff Member performing the duties of:
 - (i) A vacant position for which the University has made a definite decision to fill and has recruitment actively in progress; or
 - (ii) A position for which the normal occupant is performing higher duties or is performing a work activity provided for in this Agreement.

The work activity will be engaged in by the Staff Member until a person is engaged for the vacant position or the normal occupant resumes the position, as applicable.

- e) Pre-retirement Contract; which is a work activity where a Staff Member has agreed to a pre-retirement contract on a Fixed-Term basis. The contract will normally expire around the relevant retirement date, and will be no longer than 5 years.
- f) New Organisational Area; which is a work activity in a new organisational area where there is genuine uncertainty as to whether the new area will continue. A contract can have a term of up to 3 years prior to or from the establishment of the new area.

If it becomes certain that the organisational area will continue, and the Staff Member has been employed for a minimum of 2 years and meets the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3 (a) – (e), then they will be offered Continuing Employment.

- g) Area Under Review; which is a work activity occurring in circumstances where a formal review of an organisational area is under way. A Staff Member may be employed on a 12 month contract. Where the formal review has not been completed prior to the expiry of the 12 month period, the Staff Member may be given further employment on a Fixed-Term basis for a further 12 months. If at the end of the formal review the organisational area is not to be disestablished and the work is considered to be ongoing, the Staff Member will be offered Continuing Employment subject to the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3 (a) – (e).

- h) Disestablished Organisational Area; which is a work activity in an existing work area where there has been a definite decision to cease that work area. For such work activity, a contract of up to 3 years may be offered.
- i) Apprenticeship or Traineeship; which is a work activity where a Staff Member is under a formal government-sponsored or approved traineeship or apprenticeship. Such a Staff Member is to be engaged for a period not exceeding the period of the apprenticeship or the traineeship.
- j) Leadership; which is a work activity where a Staff Member is employed as an Academic Staff Member at the level of Dean or Associate Dean in any School provided that in this case the contract will include a provision allowing for the Dean or Associate Dean to revert to the existing or substantive position held by the Academic Staff Member prior to appointment as Dean or Associate Dean. The University may use either a Fixed-Term or Maximum Term Contract for employment in this sub-clause 8.4.1 (j).
- k) Recent Professional Practice Required; which is a work activity where there is a curriculum requirement that the work is to be undertaken by a Staff Member who has recent practical or commercial experience within the preceding 2 years. Such a Staff Member is to be engaged for a period not exceeding 2 years.
- l) Employment of Students; which is a work activity where the Staff Member is enrolled as a student at the University, and their employment is in an area relating to their area of study. The period of Fixed-Term Employment should not extend beyond the academic year in which the later of any of the following apply;
 - i) the Staff Member ceases to be a student; or
 - ii) the Staff Member is not enrolled as a student but is still completing post-graduate work; or
 - iii) the Staff Member is not enrolled as a student but is awaiting results.

The University may offer a further Fixed-Term contract of a maximum of 12 months subsequent to the initial contract.
- n) Unanticipated Increase in Enrolments; which is a work activity where there is a sudden unanticipated or temporary increase in enrolments. A Fixed-Term contract may be used for up to 3 years. If at the end of 3 years, the work is considered to be on-going, the Staff Member will be offered Continuing Employment subject to the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3. A list of contracts issued in this category, including information as to the area of appointment, will be provided to the Joint Consultative Committee on an annual basis.

- o) Substantial Decrease in Enrolments; which is a work activity where there is a reasonable expectation (based on data available at the time) that there is a significant risk of a decrease in enrolments which:
 - i) is likely to require a reduction in future staff numbers; and
 - ii) causes a need, in the period leading up to the decrease in enrolments, to cover the work of a type that could reasonably be expected to be affected by the decrease in enrolments.

If both criteria set out above are met, the University may use a Fixed-Term contract of up to 3 years duration. The contracts issued must be linked to the area(s) of forecast enrolment decrease. If at the end of 3 years, the work is considered to be Continuing, the Staff Member will be offered Continuing Employment subject to the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3.

If the University is able to reasonably justify that risk still exists at the end of the contract, a further contract of up to 2 years may be issued. A list of contracts issued in this category, including information as to the area of appointment, will be provided to the Joint Consultative Committee on an annual basis.

- p) First Year Medicine Tutors; which is a work activity in which a Staff Member is employed in the University's School of Medicine, Fremantle or School of Medicine, Sydney for the purpose of tuition for first year medical students and where that Staff Member does not yet have a current registration as a Medical Practitioner with the Medical Board Of Australia (Registration). A contract of up to 3 years may be offered. If at the end of the contract, the Staff Member has obtained Registration, the Staff Member will be offered Continuing Employment subject to the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3.
- q) Convertible Fixed-Term Employment; which is a work activity where the following applies:
 - i) A convertible Fixed-Term appointment at Level A or Level B may be advertised or offered by the University to Sessional Staff Members on the basis that the employment is convertible from Fixed-Term to Continuing prior to the expiration of the contract.
 - ii) A convertible Fixed-Term appointment will normally be for a period of three years and will not be for a period of less than one year. Such a position may be Full-Time or Part-Time, but such an appointment will involve a mix of duties broadly consistent with those by custom and practice assigned to academics in the relevant classification and Academic unit.
 - iii) Conversion from Fixed-Term to Continuing Employment will be determined in accordance with the criteria set out in sub-clause 8.3 of this Agreement.
- r) The Union and the University may agree on any specific circumstances other than those specified above, where the use of Fixed-Term contracts may be appropriate (despite the desirability of maximising the number of Staff Members in Continuing Employment).

Such agreement may be subject to conditions such as the time, location, duration and number of any contracts. Where agreement is reached, notwithstanding the other requirements of this clause, Fixed-term Employment is permitted, subject to any such conditions.

8.4.2 A Staff Member who is employed on a Fixed-Term contract for a Specific Task or Project in accordance with paragraph 8.4.1 (a) or for Research in accordance with paragraph 8.4.1 (b), and who is on a second or subsequent contract and who has not secured comparable alternative employment at the expiry of their second or subsequent contract because:

- a) the same or substantially similar duties are not required by the University; or
- b) the duties of the kind performed in relation to the work continue to be required but another person has been appointed, or is to be appointed, to the same or substantially similar duties; will be entitled to the following amount of severance pay:

- 20.3 The University acknowledges that all Staff Members have the right to dignity at work in an environment free from Workplace Bullying, and is committed to investigating and eliminating any reported instances of Workplace Bullying.
- 20.4 The University encourages all Staff Members to report any instances of Workplace Bullying.
- 20.5 During the life of this Agreement, the University will develop and maintain a policy dealing with Workplace Bullying. Such a policy will not preclude a Staff Member from lodging a grievance under Clause 21. Grievance Procedures.

21 Grievance Procedures

21.1 Definition and Scope

- 21.1.1 “Grievance” will include any type of problem, concern or complaint that relates to work, the workplace or the work environment. A grievance can be brought about by any act, behaviour, omission, situation or decision that has occurred and which a Staff Member perceives to be unfair or unjustified.
- 21.1.2 This clause 21 will not apply in relation to any matter covered by a separate review process under this Agreement or any matter in relation to which there is an existing avenue for appeal against a decision of the University.

21.2 Policy

- 21.2.1 The University will maintain a grievance resolution policy which can be accessed by Staff Members.
- 21.2.2 In dealing with a grievance the University will ensure that:
- a) a Staff Member raising a grievance receives a fair hearing and the principles of natural justice are observed; and
 - b) the interests of all parties are given proper consideration.

21.3 Grievance Resolution Process

Local Resolution

- 21.3.1 If a Staff Member has a grievance, it should be dealt with locally, speedily and confidentially. The aggrieved Staff Member should in the first instance attempt to resolve the grievance with the person concerned.
- 21.3.2 If the Staff Member is unable to resolve the grievance with the person concerned, the Staff Member must seek assistance from their local supervisor or line manager.
- 21.3.3 If resolution is not achieved with the assistance of the local supervisor or line manager, or if the grievance relates to the Staff Member’s local supervisor or line manager, the Staff Member must seek assistance from the next most senior staff member in the line of management responsibility.

Formal Grievance

- 21.3.4 Where an attempt at a local resolution of the grievance has occurred but failed or where the circumstances make resolution at the local level impracticable, the Staff Member may lodge a Formal Grievance with the Vice Chancellor. The Vice Chancellor will nominate a Senior Staff Member to manage the resolution process.
- 21.3.5 The Senior Staff Member will, within 7 working days of receipt of details of the formal grievance, or as otherwise agreed, arrange a conference of the parties to the grievance (including, where requested by the Staff Member, the Staff Member's Support Person and the Staff Member's supervisor).

- 21.3.6 If the grievance cannot be resolved at the conference, the Senior Staff Member may attempt to resolve the grievance through investigation and conciliation.
- 21.3.7 If a resolution cannot be reached, the Senior Staff Member will provide the parties with a proposed resolution, including reasons for the resolution, in writing. Each party must either accept or decline the resolution within 5 working days of receipt.
- 21.3.8 If all parties accept the resolution, the agreed course of action will be implemented immediately. If the proposed resolution is not accepted, the Senior Staff Member will notify the parties of the failure to reach a resolution and refer the Grievance to the Vice Chancellor.

Referral to Vice Chancellor for Determination

- 21.3.9 The Vice Chancellor will make a final determination with respect to the Grievance which may be the same or different to the resolution proposal of the Senior Staff Member. Any determination made by the Vice Chancellor with regard to the grievance will be final, save for a Staff Member's right to pursue the matter outside the University through any relevant external agency or tribunal.
- 21.3.10 Nothing in this clause will prevent a Staff Member from having an issue raised in accordance with this clause conciliated or arbitrated in the Fair Work Commission.

22 Dispute Resolution Procedures

- 22.1 The Parties agree that:
- a) all Staff Members, their representatives and the University have an interest in the proper application of this Agreement; and
 - b) all Staff Members, their representatives and the University will use their best endeavours to ensure that disputes are managed and resolved in a timely manner at the workplace level.
- 22.2 Where a dispute relates to a matter arising under this Agreement or the National Employment Standards, the dispute resolution procedures set out in this clause 22 will apply.
- 22.3 A Staff Member who is a party to a dispute may appoint their Union or other representative to accompany or represent them, or both, for the purposes of resolving the dispute. The Staff Member's Union or other representative may address dispute matters with the University on behalf of the Staff Member, without the Staff Member being present.
- 22.4 The University, the Union or a Staff Member may raise a dispute in accordance with this clause 22 by providing notice of the dispute with the other party in writing setting out the particulars and circumstances of the dispute. The party that first raises the dispute will be referred to in this clause 22 as the "Initiating Party".
- 22.5 The dispute must first be discussed between the Initiating Party, and/or (where relevant) her/his representative, supervisor or other appropriate Staff Member or Senior Staff Member or the Union within 5 working days of the dispute being notified to the relevant party. All parties must use their best endeavours to resolve the dispute.
- 22.6 If, following the discussions set out in sub-clause 22.5, the dispute cannot be resolved, the Initiating Party may refer the dispute in writing to an appropriate Senior Staff Member. The Senior Staff Member will use their best endeavours to resolve the dispute within 5 working days of their receipt of the referral or such other time as may be agreed between the parties.
- 22.7 If, following referral in sub-clause 6, the dispute cannot be resolved, either party to the dispute may refer the matter in dispute to Fair Work Australia. The party referring the dispute to Fair Work Australia will notify the Union.
- 22.8 Fair Work Australia may resolve the dispute by conciliation or arbitration or both. Each of the University, the Union and Staff Member agree to be bound by and implement any order, decision or recommendation of Fair Work Australia, subject to any existing right of appeal.
- 22.9 Except where a genuine safety issue is involved, while the dispute resolution processes in this clause 22 are being applied, the Staff Member will continue to perform their work and undertake their duties normally. Neither party to the dispute will take any action or implement any change that is likely to exacerbate the dispute.

- b) written advice regarding the nature of the improvement required;
- c) a copy of this Clause (Clause 23) and the Policy: Managing Unsatisfactory Performance;
- d) notice of a suitable time to formally meet to discuss their unsatisfactory performance, which will be no more than 7 working days from the date of the written advice of performance concerns.

23.3.3 The supervisor may request a member of the Staffing Office to be in attendance at the meeting.

Opportunity to respond

23.3.4 At the formal meeting, the Staff Member will be given the opportunity to respond to each performance concern. Where a staff member feels they are unable to adequately respond to the performance concerns during the meeting or requests time to consider their response, they may provide a written response to the supervisor within 5 working days of the meeting.

23.3.5 The supervisor will then consider the responses of the Staff Member, and any reasons or explanations put forward by the staff member.

No further action

23.3.6 Where the supervisor is satisfied with the response, the supervisor will notify the Staff Member that the performance concerns have been satisfied and no further action is necessary.

Performance Improvement Plan

23.3.7 Where the supervisor considers the Staff Member's responses do not satisfactorily address the performance concerns, the supervisor, in conjunction with the Staff Member, will develop an agreed Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). - b) the level of improvement made is not yet satisfactory.

23.3.15 Where the supervisor is of the view that there has not been enough improvement, but believes the Staff Member is willing to take steps to improve their performance, a further specified review period will be implemented and the steps set out in clauses 23.3.11 to 23.3.14 will be repeated.

23.3.16 Where the supervisor is of the view that the unsatisfactory performance is unlikely to be resolved, the supervisor must refer the matter to the supervisor's senior manager. If the supervisor's senior manager considers that the unsatisfactory performance is unlikely to be resolved, the senior manager must notify the Staff member in writing that they intend to refer the matter to the Vice Chancellor for further action in accordance with clause 23.4.

23.4 Referral to Vice Chancellor for Review by Senior Staff Member

23.4.1 Where the matter has been referred to the Vice Chancellor under clause 23.3.16, the Vice Chancellor will nominate a Senior Staff Member to handle the matter.

- b) that the improvements required of the Staff Member were reasonable;
- c) that adequate opportunity was given to the Staff Member to respond to the performance concerns;
- d) that a reasonable period of time was afforded to the Staff Member to remedy the deficiencies identified in their performance; and

23.4.3 Once the Senior Staff Member has reviewed the matter, they will provide a written report to the Vice Chancellor including:

- a) their findings on the matter; and
- b) a recommendation in relation to the appropriate disciplinary action, if any, to be taken. This may include, but is not limited to:
 - ii) providing the Staff Member with a further written warning and further time to improve their performance;

- a) of the nature of their findings;
- b) of the recommendation to the Vice Chancellor that they have made in relation to any disciplinary action to be taken against the Staff Member as a result of the findings; and
- c) that if the Staff Member wishes to appeal the findings or recommendations of the Senior Staff Member, they must, within 5 working days, advise the Vice Chancellor in writing.

23.4.5 If the Staff Member does not appeal the recommendation of the Senior Staff Member in accordance with subclause 23.4.4(c), the Vice Chancellor will as soon as practicable provide notice to the Staff Member, in writing of:

- a) the Vice Chancellor's decision; and

23.5 Staff Review Committee

23.5.1 In the event that the Staff Member notifies the Vice Chancellor within 5 working days that they wish to appeal the findings or recommendations of the Senior Staff Member, the Vice Chancellor will refer the appeal to a Staff Review Committee convened for this purpose.

23.5.2 In conducting its review, the Staff Review Committee will consider whether:

- a) all steps of the process outlined in this clause have been complied with;
- b) the performance of the Staff Member was unsatisfactory;
- c) appropriate steps were taken to bring the unsatisfactory nature of performance to the attention of the Staff Member;
- d) due and proper consideration was given to the Staff Member's response;
- e) reasonable time, opportunity and resources were made available to the Staff Member to enable them to remedy their performance;
- f) there was appropriate consultation with the Staff Member's colleagues, where requested;
- g) the decision of the Senior Staff Member was reasonable in the circumstances; and
- h) the disciplinary action recommended by the Senior Staff Member was reasonable in the circumstances.

23.5.3 In conducting its investigation, the Staff Review Committee will:

- a) be able to hear any person or receive any materials it sees fit to assist in its deliberation;
- b) allow the Staff Member to be represented in the matter if they so choose;

Such documentation may include records of meetings, discussions with witnesses, responses, correspondence and considerations relevant to the alleged unsatisfactory performance.

24.3.9 Where a Staff Member is required to attend a meeting under this clause, they will be entitled to have a Support Person present, who may be a Union representative.

24.3.10 The Staff Member will be provided with a copy of this clause 24 of the Agreement and a copy of the University's Policy: Managing Misconduct.

Staff Member's Response to Allegation/s

24.3.11 Where the Staff Member admits the allegation/s in full, the Investigating Officer may:

- a) advise the Vice Chancellor; and
- b) recommend to the Vice Chancellor the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken against the Staff Member.

24.3.12 A Staff Member who admits the allegation/s in full is only entitled to appeal the disciplinary action proposed.

Suspension With or Without Pay Pending Outcome of Investigation

24.3.13 If at any time, the Investigating Officer is of the view that the allegation/s would, if substantiated, constitute serious misconduct, the Investigating Officer may recommend to the Vice Chancellor that the Staff Member be suspended from their employment with or without pay pending the outcome of the investigation.

24.3.14 The Vice Chancellor may suspend the Staff Member with or without pay pending investigation.

24.3.15 A Staff Member will be advised of any decision to suspend the Staff Member in accordance with sub-clause 24.3.13 as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

24.3.16 Where a Staff Member is suspended without pay, any lost income will be reimbursed if it is found that there was no serious misconduct.

24.3.17 In the event that the Staff Member is suspended without pay, he or she may apply to take leave on the grounds of financial hardship to the Vice Chancellor. Any decision will be at the absolute discretion of the Vice Chancellor.

Conduct of Investigation

24.3.18 The Investigating Officer must gather all available information in relation to the alleged misconduct, including interviewing any person/s involved. The Staff Member to whom the allegation/s relate will be provided with no less than 7 working days to prepare a response to any allegation/s.

- a) providing the Staff Member with a written warning;
- b) requiring the Staff Member to undertake counselling or training; or
- c) where serious misconduct has been substantiated, terminating the employment of the Staff Member, with or without notice depending on the circumstances.

24.3.21 The Investigating Officer will provide a copy of the report to the Vice Chancellor and the Staff Member.

24.3.22 The Investigating Officer will advise the Staff Member that he or she has the right to appeal the findings and/or recommendations of the Investigating Officer and that the Staff Member must lodge an appeal with the Vice Chancellor, in writing, within 5 working days of receipt of the Investigating Officer's report.

24.3.23 If the Staff Member does not lodge an appeal with the Vice Chancellor within the timeframe set out in sub-clause 24.3.22, the Vice Chancellor may make a decision on the basis of the report as to any disciplinary action to be taken and that decision will be final, except to the extent that any tribunal or court can determine the matter.

24.3.24 If the Staff Member does not lodge an appeal with the Vice Chancellor, where appropriate, the complainant will be notified of the Vice Chancellor's decision.

24.4 Appeal

24.4.1 In the event that the Staff Member lodges an appeal of the findings or recommendations as to disciplinary action of the Investigating Officer in accordance with clause 24.3.22, the Vice Chancellor will refer the matter to a Staff Review Committee convened for this purpose.

24.4.2 In conducting its review, the Staff Review Committee will:

- a) investigate the evidence, and the Investigating Officer's report;
- b) ensure that the Staff Member has had adequate opportunity to answer allegations;
- c) take into account all materials it believes appropriate to establish facts in dispute;

- d) be able to hear any person or receive any materials it sees fit to assist in its deliberations;
- e) allow the staff member, if they so choose, to be represented in the matter;
- f) ensure that the Staff Member or their representative has the right to make submissions, provide relevant witnesses and to present and challenge evidence; and
- g) in its discretion, allow any other person the Staff Review Committee wishes to hear from (or their representative) the right to make submissions and to present and challenge evidence.

24.4.3 The Staff Review Committee will provide a written report to the Vice Chancellor setting out:

24.4.6 Where appropriate the complainant will be notified of the Vice Chancellor's decision.

24.5 Records

Where there is a finding of misconduct or serious misconduct against a Staff Member, documentation relating to the investigation may be placed on the Staff Member's personnel file. Such documentation may include records of meetings, discussions with witnesses, responses, correspondence and reports.

25 Termination of Employment on the Grounds of Ill-Health

25.1 Application

Nothing in this Clause is intended to preclude a Staff Member from initiating separation from employment on medical grounds or from applying to their superannuation fund for ill-health retirement or temporary disability benefit.

25.2 Medical Examination

25.2.1 The University may require, in writing, any Staff Member whose capacity to perform the duties of their office is in doubt to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner nominated by the University. The cost of the medical examination will be the responsibility of the University.

25.2.2 The University will provide the Staff Member with written notice of 1 month or sooner if agreed, that a medical examination is required.

25.3 Superannuation Application

25.3.1 Where the Staff Member elects to apply to their superannuation fund, prior to the expiry of the period of notice for ill health retirement or temporary disability benefit pursuant to the rules of the superannuation fund, the requirement for a medical examination under sub-clause 25.2 will be suspended pending the outcome of the Staff Member's application to the superannuation fund.

25.3.2 If the medical examination reveals that the Staff Member is unable to perform their duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within the next 12 months, the University may terminate the employment of the Staff Member in accordance with the notice required by the Staff Member's contract of employment, or where no notice is specified, a period of 6 months.

25.3.3 Prior to taking action to terminate the employment of a Staff Member, the University may offer the Staff Member the opportunity to submit a resignation and, if such a resignation is offered, will accept it forthwith and not proceed with action to terminate employment.

25.3.4 In making an assessment as to whether or not a Staff Member is unable to perform their duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within a reasonable period, the medical practitioner will as far as possible apply the same standards as are used by the Staff Member's superannuation scheme, if any, in determining qualification for the payment of a disablement pension or other similar benefit.

25.4 The Medical Report

25.4.1 A copy of the medical report made by the medical practitioner will be made available to the Vice Chancellor and to the Staff Member.

25.4.2 The Vice Chancellor may construe that a refusal by a Staff Member to undergo a medical assessment in accordance with these procedures means that the Staff Member is unable to perform their duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within 12 months. A refusal by a Staff Member in these circumstances will not constitute misconduct nor lead to any greater penalty or loss of entitlements than would have resulted from an adverse medical assessment.

26 Staff Representation and Consultation

- 26.1 A Joint Consultative Committee (JCC) will be established to consult with and advise the University in relation to the issues covered in this clause.
- 26.2 The JCC will be comprised of:
- a) one Academic Staff Member and one General Staff Member elected by and from the Staff Members; and
 - b) one Academic Staff Member and one General Staff Member nominated by the NTEU; and
 - c) three Staff Members or Senior Staff Members (made up of both Academic Staff members and General Staff members) nominated by the University.
- 26.3 Once appointed, the members of the JCC will serve on this committee for the life of this Agreement. If a member leaves the University before this time, they will be replaced by either election or appointment, whichever is appropriate.
- 26.4 The role of the JCC is to facilitate consultation between the Parties by:
- a) monitoring and providing advice on the implementation of this Agreement;
 - b) receiving and considering reports as determined by the terms of this Agreement
 - c) advising on impending redundancies;
 - d) monitoring the further development of initiatives, policies and procedures consistent with the undertakings given in this Agreement;
 - e) ensuring consultation occurs prior to decision making on matters which impact on the working lives of Staff Members; and
 - f) increasing the quality of working life for all Staff Members, particularly in the areas of employment security, job design, skill formation, training and the working environment (both physical and mental).
- 26.5 The JCC will meet at least four times per year, and the above matters will remain standing items for discussion at each meeting.
- 26.6 Staff Members appointed to the JCC will be provided with appropriate time release to attend meetings and perform JCC functions and duties.

27 Workloads

27.1 Academic Workloads

Academic Workloads Model

27.1.1 The Parties recognise that the University is currently developing and undertaking consultation in relation to a proposed academic workloads model. The University will continue to develop and progress an appropriate academic workloads model and will report its progress to the Joint Consultative Committee.

27.1.2 The academic workloads model will include the following principles:

- a) The scope of academic work encompasses teaching, research, scholarship, Pastoral Care, leadership and service activities.
- b) The allocation and recognition of academic work will support the Objects and strategic direction of the University.
- c) There will be a generic approach to academic workloads which requires all Schools to develop academic workload measurement and allocation models that have common elements.
- d) Within workload allocation models some flexibility will be permitted to allow for the different needs of Schools in the University.

Academic Work

27.1.3 Academic work at the University embraces research, teaching, Pastoral Care, leadership, and professional and community service. All academic staff members at the University should have adequate and appropriate opportunities to perform in all these areas having regard to whether they are employed on a teaching and research or research-only basis.

27.1.4 Academic workload is a combination of assigned and non-assigned work. The assigned proportion of an academic staff member's work will include, for example, teaching and preparation for teaching, assessment, pastoral care, student consultation, supervision and the necessary administrative work associated with teaching and research in a collegial environment.

27.1.5 It is the responsibility of an Academic Staff Member to manage that part of Academic work and time which is not assigned consistent with the Objects, Strategic Plan, Operational Priorities and requirements of the particular Academia area. The Academic Staff Member will be accountable for both the assigned and non-assigned parts of the Academic work.

27.2 General Staff Workloads

27.2.1 The University acknowledges that General Staff loads must be realistic and reasonable and within the scope of Duty Statements.

27.2.2 Each supervisor is responsible for ensuring that workloads are fair, equitable, manageable and clearly understood. Balancing workloads are a matter to be determined between a supervisor and General Staff Member, or (in the event that work is divided between teams) groups of General Staff Members.

- 27.2.3 A General Staff Member or group of General Staff Members who have concerns about workload levels may raise those concerns with their supervisor in the first instance for resolution.
- 27.2.4 Where the process set out in 27.2.3 does not resolve concerns, the General Staff Member may raise the matter with a Senior Staff Member (nominated by the Vice Chancellor) for resolution. The Senior Staff Member may seek a workload assessment detailing any relevant matters, including data and evidence establishing actual workload.
- 27.2.5 Where it is established that a General Staff Member is (or are) undertaking an unreasonable workload, the University will take appropriate steps to address the issue.
- 27.2.6 This is an informal consultative process that is not subject to appeal. The process set out in this clause is in addition to any existing rights under this Agreement and, depending on the circumstances, a General Staff Member may elect (or be advised to) consider any alternative process under this Agreement.

General Staff Workloads Committee

- 27.2.7 The University will, within three months of the date of this Agreement, establish a General Staff Workloads Committee (GSWC) which will meet twice a year.
- 27.2.8 The role of the GSWC will be to consider trends in General Staff Member workload patterns, including indicators of excessive or unreasonable workloads which may include changes in:
- a) Work Patterns.
 - b) Work volume.
 - c) Staff Turnover.
 - d) Staff Performance.
 - e) Accrued annual leave.
 - f) Duty Statements.
 - g) Work Environment.
 - h) Benchmarking data.
- 27.2.9 The Chair of the GSWC may invite Committee representatives, Staff Members or the Union to meetings to assist in its consideration. Minutes of the GSWC that are not noted as confidential by the Chair (including reports) will be provided to the JCC following the meeting.

28 General Staff Classification and Reclassification

- 28.1 All General Staff Member positions will be classified in accordance with the General Staff Member classification descriptors set out in Schedule 3 of this Agreement. Positions will be classified at the level that most accurately reflects the work to be performed, taking into account the duties and responsibilities of the position.
- 28.2 The classification of a position must be based on work value, having regard to the following factors:
- a) The responsibilities and skills required;
 - b) Comparisons of the work requirements of the position with other positions having similar duties, responsibility and skill requirements;
 - c) The structural relationships of the positions; and
 - d) The principles of pay equity.

The term “classification” relates to the position, not to the individual.

- 28.3 Broad banding can be applied to new, vacant or reclassified positions. Broad banding is the classification of a staff position across two adjoining classification levels.

It must be consistent with the following principles:

- a) The work is commensurate with the General Staff Member Classification Descriptors;
- b) It is to be considered prior to recruitment for any new or vacant position;
- c) It is to be beneficial to the University;
- d) It is to be organisationally driven;
- e) It should not have the effect of widening the gender pay gap; and
- f) It is to be subject to the approval of the line manager in consultation with the relevant Senior Staff Member.

28.4 Position Descriptions

- 28.4.1 Each position must have a written position description. Immediately prior to an application for reclassification, the Staff Member and their supervisor are to review the position description. The agreed position description must then be lodged with the relevant Staffing Office for confirmation or amendment. If the Staff Member and their supervisor are unable to agree upon the content of the position description, the matter is to be referred to the relevant Senior Staff Member who will determine the content of the position description having regard to the views of the Staff Member, their supervisor and the University.
- 28.4.2 It is noted that it is the University’s prerogative to determine the duties, responsibilities and skills required of a particular position.

28.5 Procedure for Reclassification

28.5.1 The University will maintain a procedure under which General Staff Members may initiate a claim for reclassification of their substantive position.

28.5.2 The procedure will include the following requirements:

- a) Claims for reclassification are to be filed with both the administrative head of the relevant work area and the relevant Staffing Office;
- b) The assessment of the claim for reclassification is to be completed within 2 months, if possible, of receipt of the claim in the relevant Staffing Office;
- c) The date of effect of any successful claim for reclassification will be the date of receipt of the claim in the relevant Staffing Office; and
- d) Written reasons will be provided for all unsuccessful claims for reclassification.

28.5.3 The University retains the right to determine, in accordance with the Classification Descriptors in Schedule 3:

- a) The title and classification of new positions;
- b) The title and classification structure for categories and groups of positions;
- c) The criteria for appointment at, or promotion to, all positions and categories of positions; and
- d) The title and classification of vacant positions, having regard for the duties and responsibility attached to those positions.

28.6 Appeal

28.6.1 If a General Staff Member's application for reclassification of their substantive position is unsuccessful then the Staff Member may appeal against that decision provided that one, or more, of the following grounds apply:

- a) The University did not comply with a requirement of this clause when considering the application for reclassification;
- b) The University did not follow its set down procedure for applications for reclassifications of positions;
- c) The University did not afford the individual Staff Member procedural fairness in its consideration of the application for reclassification; or
- d) The University did not correctly assess the work value of the relevant position.

- 28.6.2 The appeal must be lodged within 15 working days of receiving notification that the application for reclassification of their substantive position is unsuccessful.
- 28.6.3 A Reclassification Review Committee will be formed upon the receipt of a Reclassification Appeal. The Committee is to consist of suitably experienced persons.
- 28.6.4 The Reclassification Review Committee will firstly determine whether the appeal is valid, that is whether it addresses one or more of the grounds of appeal. If the Reclassification Review Committee decides that the appeal does not address the relevant grounds of appeal then the Committee will dismiss the appeal.
- 28.6.5 If the Reclassification Review Committee decides that an appeal is a valid appeal, it will then consider whether the appellant successfully establishes one or more of the grounds of appeal. If the Reclassification Review Committee determines that the appellant has not established one or more of the grounds of appeal, the appeal must be dismissed.
- 28.6.6 If the Reclassification Review Committee determines that the appellant has established one, or more, grounds of appeal, then the Committee will refer the application for reclassification back to the Campus Staffing Office for further consideration. In doing so, the Reclassification Review Committee will clearly set out in writing the established grounds, and what the Campus Staffing Office needs to do to remedy the breach of process.
- 28.6.7 The Campus Staffing Office must then reconsider the application for reclassification, in light of the findings of the Reclassification Review Committee. That reconsideration will take place within 15 working days of receipt by the Campus Staffing Office of the referral from the Reclassification Review Committee.

1 Casual Rates

1.1 Formulae

The minimum salaries paid to Sessional Staff Members will be at the hourly rates provided for in this clause. The initial base salary rates used in the calculations that follow are the 2015 salary rates. The base salary rates used in these formulae should be adjusted annually and refer to the salary rate which applies in the year in which payment of a casual rate is made. These rates are derived from three base salary rates using the following formulae:

1.1.1 Lecturing and higher marking rate

The base rate applicable to lecturing or for purposes of the higher marking rate is determined by reference to the second step of the Full-Time Level B salary scale for Academic Staff Members and calculated as follows:

[Base salary rate]/[52 weeks]/[37.5 hours] + [25% Casual Loading]

Fremantle & Broome Campuses:

$($90,407 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \57.9532

From 1/1/2016: $($93,119 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \59.6917

From 1/1/2017: $($95,913 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \61.4827

Sydney Campus:

$($94,485 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \60.5673

From 1/1/2016: $($97,320 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \62.3846

From 1/1/2017: $($100,240 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \64.2564

1.1.2 Rate applicable to performance of other duties involving full-time subject coordination or possession of a relevant doctoral qualification

The base rate applicable where the duties include full-time subject coordination or the Academic Staff Member possesses a relevant doctoral qualification is determined by reference to the sixth step of the full-time Level A salary scale for Academic Staff Members and calculated as follows:

[Base salary rate]/[52 weeks]/[37.5 hours] + [25% Casual Loading]

Fremantle & Broome Campuses:

$($77,119 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \49.4353

From 1/1/2016: $($79,433 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \50.9186

From 1/1/2017: $($81,816 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \52.4462

Sydney Campus:

$($81,214 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \52.0603

From 1/1/2016: $($83,650 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \53.6218

From 1/1/2017: $($86,160 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \55.2308

1.1.3 Rate applicable to all other duties

The base rate applicable to all other duties including tutoring rates not covered by clause 1.1.2 is determined by reference to the second step of the full-time Level A salary scale for Academic Staff Members and calculated as follows:

[Base salary rate]/[52 weeks]/[37.5 hours] + [25% Casual Loading]

Fremantle & Broome Campuses:

$($64,484 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \41.3359

From 1/1/2016: $($66,419 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \42.5763

From 1/1/2017: $($68,412 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \43.8538

Sydney Campus:

$($68,596 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \43.9718

From 1/1/2016: $($70,654 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \42.2910

From 1/1/2017: $($72,774 / 52 / 37.5) + 25\% = \46.6500

Routine supervision:	Direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods.

	Guidance on the approach to standard circumstances is provided in procedures, guidance on the approach to non-standard circumstances is provided by a supervisor. Checking is selective rather than constant.
General direction:	Direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the occupant determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. There is some scope to determine an approach in the absence of established procedures or detailed instructions, but guidance is readily available. Performance is checked by assignment completion.
Broad direction:	Direction is provided in terms of objectives which may require the planning of staff, time and material resources for their completion. Limited detailed guidance will be available and the development or modification of procedures by the General Staff Member may be required. Performance will be measured against objectives.
